

Apparel Design (Faculty: Textile, Apparel, Lifestyle & Accessory Design)

Q.No	Question
1	Using only the given materials, create a small prototype of an upcycled fashion product (e.g., a patchwork bag, an upcycled footwear idea, or a fabric-based wristband). Your output should highlight sustainability. Required Material: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Scraps of old denim and cotton fabric (assorted sizes) ● Twine / Jute thread ● Thin wire (flexible) ● Buttons and beads ● Fevicol ● Paper clips ● A4-size chart paper ● Sketch pens / Pencils ● Small piece of Velcro
2	Write the properties like texture, feel, stretchability, appearance of the following fabrics. a. Silk organza, b. Cotton Twill. Suggest appropriate garment to be made out any one of these fabrics. Illustrate the garment.
3	Watch the video -

After watching the video, analyze how movement and fabric interplay in fashion. Sketch a concept for a dynamic garment inspired by the techniques in the video. Include material suggestions and how the garment will move when worn.